F. AGENCY REPORTS:

1. Agency Update

Administrator Jim Denno

The legislative concept for revisions to the residential continuing education requirements was reviewed.

A business analyst has been hired to document and map the existing CCB processes for applications, renewals, payments, enforcement and dispute resolution. This documentation is part of the business case required by DAS before an agency may proceed with a major IT project, such as the licensing system upgrades the agency is planning. The business analyst will be at the CCB for about six months.

The limited duration Operational Transformation Manager has been hired to oversee IT staff and manage the agency's IT projects over the next two years. A Business Services and HR Manager has also been hired.

The CCB implemented a new phone system. The agency has been working with the DAS project management team and the vendor representatives to resolve some service issues with the transition.

2. 5 Year Rule Review

Policy Analyst, Kathi Dahlin

New rules are required to be reviewed after 5 years to ensure that they're achieving the purpose for which they were adopted. The new rules adopted in 2012 were reviewed and the findings are in the board packet. No changes are necessary.

3. Licensing

Licensing Manager, Laurie Hall

The licensing numbers continue to slowly increase. A new public service representative has been hired and license processing time on all transactions (new licenses, renewals, personnel changes, etc.) has dropped to 2-3 days.

4. Communication & Education

Communication and Education Manager, Cheryl Martinis

The annual homeowner survey was completed. 51% of people surveyed were aware of the CCB. 57% of people surveyed who completed a home project in the last 5 years were aware of the CCB. These numbers have improved since the last survey. 69% of people surveyed were dissatisfied with the way their investigation was handled. This was a very small sample size and these results do not match results from the agency's internal surveys. The wording of the survey questions will be reviewed prior to next year's survey.

The license search feature on the website is being improved to make it more user-friendly. This will go live in the next few days.

5. Enforcement

Stan Jessup, Enforcement Manager

New enforcement staff is performing very well. The number of jobsite checks by investigators is up significantly. Currently there is a recruitment taking place for a compliance officer and a dispute analyst.

6. Administrative Services

Fiscal Analyst, Cindy Mora

The monthly budget report was reviewed. Expenditures are consistently slightly below the budgeted amount, and revenue is slightly higher than the budgeted amount.

G. OLD BUSINESS

1. No old business.

H. NEW BUSINESS

1. KPM 10

Procurement Specialist, Catherine Dixon

The Board is required to annually review the items relating to boards and commissions best practices in Key Performance Measure #10 to determine if the agency has complied over the past year.

MOTION: Board Chair Jim Patrick moved to approve that KPM #10 Best Practices were complied with by the agency. Sandi Warren seconded the motion. Motion carried unanimously.

I. ADJOURNED:

The meeting adjourned at 10:10 a.m.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Oct. 5, 2016

Stan Jessup, 503-934-2188

CCB Sweeps Eastern Oregon for Unlicensed Contractors

Salem – Homeowners in Eastern Oregon should be on the alert for unlicensed contractors working in their area.

Construction Contractors Board (CCB) investigators recently found about two dozen potential violations of contractor laws and rules as they conducted enforcement sweeps in nine Eastern Oregon counties from Hermiston east to the Idaho border, and south to the Burns area.

CCB investigators spent Sept. 26-30 checking construction sites as part of the agency's ongoing effort to root out unlicensed contractors.

“With limited exceptions, it is illegal in Oregon for anyone to do construction work for hire without a CCB license,” Enforcement Manager Stan Jessup said.

Why use licensed contractors?

To protect consumers, the state requires licensed contractors to be bonded and carry liability insurance. They are also responsible to carry workers' compensation insurance if they have employees, ensuring coverage for job-related injuries. Licensed contractors can get required project permits. Also, the CCB offers Dispute Resolution Services to help resolve disputes between homeowners and licensed residential contractors.

Homeowners can look up a contractor by visiting the CCB website at www.oregon.gov/ccb and entering a license number or name in the orange “Search” feature. Verify that the license is “active” and that the name on the license matches the contractor in question.

Homeowners who hire unlicensed workers may be considered employers. If this happens, the homeowner may be responsible to buy workers' compensation insurance, obtain required building permits and meet other duties of employers. Homeowners that fail to do so could face penalties and even lawsuits.

Job site visits

During the recent visits to 72 job sites, the CCB checked for contractor, as well as plumber and electrician licenses. Contractors from Idaho or other states that work in Oregon need an Oregon CCB license even if they are registered or licensed in another state. The agency also looks to see if contractors obtained required permits.

These were the most common violations:

- People working without a contractor's license or contractors that hired unlicensed subcontractors (15 alleged violations)
- Contractors that failed to provide workers' compensation coverage for their employees (three alleged violations)
- Contractors that worked on homes built before 1978 without the special license required to handle lead-based paint (two alleged violations)

Investigators visited another 59 sites involving construction work but found no workers present.

“We suspect that in many of those cases, the workers heard the CCB was in town and abandoned the project, at least temporarily,” Jessup said. “We hope that legitimate contractors, as well as homeowners, report suspected illegal activity.”

CCB compliance staff in Salem will now review investigators’ reports and decide whether to issue fines to contractors suspected of violations. The CCB posts monthly reports of contractors it penalizes on its website: <http://www.oregon.gov/ccb/Pages/enforcement.aspx>

A typical first-offense penalty for working without a license is $1,000 with subsequent violations resulting in fines of up to $5,000. Working without a license is also a misdemeanor crime.

Contractors and consumers can report unlicensed contractors and other illegal activity on the CCB’s website or by calling 503-934-2246.

About the CCB

The CCB is the state agency licensing 33,000 contractors. Anyone who is paid to repair, improve or build a home must be licensed. Learn more about how to have a successful project at www.oregon.gov/ccb.

Id rather use the mail then have to call and ask questions about the website functions, definitions, etc.

Will use next time

Initial application

Change in QP

I do not like doing business online.

Prefer files to be created in writing - Do not trust online security, There have been too many hack.

always renewed by mail in the past - easier for me

I think I renewed online, I dont remember

Will try next year.

New License

Had hard copies of insurance

I haven't renewed yet

Prefer to renew by mail

Change of officers

Needed to submit check as payment so did paper form.

Change in partnership - had to be paper filed

I just got my new license

Just received my license

And thank you it has made paperwork much easier & faster!

Was in salem for insurance, went directly to CCB in salem but online application looked very easy!

"I like paper".

Changes in endorsement

was just easier to do on paper/ part on computer not a fan of computers

change in corporate officers

I tried but additional details were needed. I faxed my application and all went well to completion

It was not available to me.. I only found this out after spending a fair amount of time starting the process (which I couldn't finish). NOWHERE ON ANY of the 12 pages of info that was i ncluded did it exclude home inspectors.

I prefer to renew by mail or in person

Had to change log-in info

I did both

No idea why not

Changed my business entity, so have not used the online renewal yet

I dont think LBP has online

Mail

Not an option because I had a partner change

I like the mailing process

But i didnt know about until I called to ask a question.

Quicker to do teh application by hand

Prefer mail

"I will next time".

"Don't like using the internet".

Keep us the license more informed

24 hour turn around on online renewals

Process credit card payments in person or via phone ability to email documents

Found the process to pay my application fee a bid antiquated.

Make it easier for computer challenged people all changes over last year have been very positive it was very easy to renew online!

Just keep doing what youre doing

If theres more than one issue with an application its helpful to not ALL issues at once then instead of one letter at a time.

Maybe highlight much more clearly and in more places the types of licensing that does not need the training and test. Unfortunately I took days looking into the matter and had almost signed up for a course and test until I saw on the application that a res. der license does it require.

No changes are needed, as far as im concerned.

Everything is fine

This year was easier for me thanks.

Great service lately - great work!

Yes - A company such as mine, who had done business for 36 yrs, should not have to take classes which are useless! What other industry requires companies to be "educated" by companies that are all less than 5 yrs est.

I thought the CCB online classes (required) were very poorly presented.

Online Renewal needs a comment section. I knew my insurance expired in ten days & that my agent would have new insurance certs to you in 3 days then no letter from you would have been necessary.

Have a time machine to make me younger and better health. Thinking about getting out of roofing & stopping contracting in 1 to 2 years. I did have a good 22 years. PS. OSHA and fall propection is driving me mad.

Make the new license application available online. If there is a problem with the application call or email for more detail. Do not write a letter.

I didn't have to but I didn't see the section about updating the sic codes perhaps the online renewal isn't available if a contractor has to change those?

The continuing ed. is irrelevant for many companies. It should be scrapped and done away with. Thanks for taking more of small business money.

Charge less for perulitling at Portland I encourage. Portland to charge less.

Every dept in Oregon is great to work with. Knowledgeable & helpful.

Not sure, plan on retiring soon

Well done! The process was very easy.

Have ceus that pertain to arborists let isa ceus work for CCB ceu credit

Reduce cost - Stop selling or giving out our names to salesman

Too much redundancy

It was just fine for me

They are great. If you have a question - call & they explain most clearly.

The online renewal portal was typical govt. - too much info & too unclear as to what it took to renew. Renewing is simple - it should be even simpler online, just pushing buttons and entering some info.

Satisfied with current system

Im very pleased with the system as is!

No opinion

Most of the classes I took did not relate to my business but I had no choice.

I was given multiple different answers at different time about how to send in my renewal certificate. At one point I received a letter back saying it wasn't valid! But When I called they didn't understand why I got a notice so just told me to disregard. That was very confusing.

Hard to get better

Keep up the good work - Thanks

Stay the same!

Quicker processing time

PAY ATTENTION TO WHEN INSURANCE & BONDING RENEWALS ARE SENT TO YOU

You all Rock!!

I think its working as it should.

It would be helpful to have a reminder 1 week before license expires to help avoid possible lapse.

I was to recognize Jerry Chadwick for being very helpful! Thanks

Clearer instructions! So difficult to understand!

No complaints

Not at this time

I cant think of anything that would make it better except to offer all classes thru CCB.

I wish there were clearer requirements for the one year new construction/home warranty.

CCB does a great job any problems ive had were my own procrastination.

One idea- Not a must do but nice to have - would be send a reminder separate from renewal (to let us know about expiring education. All in all the process was very fast and easy.

The directions to the class were not good. I found it by asking (need good signs for finding classes put on street area)

Would like wider variety of continuing education. Especially from community college...Welding, energy eff, tiny house.

Regina was a big help with correcting the mistakes I made on the application. give her a raise for her amazing customer service skills :)
Online was great

Don't know it seemed to work fine for me.

None. Brenna was incredibly helpful & attentive

Make sure the exp date is right its suppose to be 8/19/18 but it came back 8/19/16 thats when the old one exp.

This continuing education for someone thats been in the business for over 30 years is B.S. this is nothing but a way to get more money out of me!

Make the online class requirements more clear. It took me a while to figure out the classes CCB requires and provides and ones from vendors.

CCB does a good job, but it has nothing to do with what we do at scio cable vision. The only thing we do to a house or home is drill a 3/8" hole in siding or floor sometimes.

I know I am not the only contractor who appreciates how much more user friendly you are these days. Keep up the good work.

Nothing Great Thank You

Find a way for a exempt Gen. Cont. to get workers comp at a fair rate and not needing to go to a temp agency.

OK for now. Thank You

Con't Ed is way to frequent. There aren't enough changes in two years

It was great

I was satisfied

Great Job!

Wish those of us who have been around awhile didn't have to take classes on business.

It can get a little boring watching the video - most of it is common sense

Observation: there seems to be a lack of communication between licensing disputing and enforcement division. Recently was called by a field agent on a wind turbine project about the need for another endorsement. Did that later enforcement fine me.

The online renewal process was simple & easy to use #5 No phone contact

Sending reminder letters a month or 2 in advance if classes are required or continued education

Cease requiring courses not applicable to my specialty

Make sure we can do everything online - instead of driving all the way to Salem :)

Not charge me for my license because I'm old. Lol

Re-Newing was much easier than the original. On Line was great. You guys are really wonderful in answering all questions. Can't think of anything you can do better. Thanks

Keep the ladies who answer the phone and are so knowledgeable. They are great.

Joann your customer service rep was out standing. All and all you guys did a Great Job. The delays where more on my part with not having paper work filled out.

DBA name should be on front of license not on back of it.

Make it clear WHICH licenses are able to be renewed online ON THE PAPERWORK THAT IS SENT TO EVERYONE. It's incredibly infuriating to read every word, follow the directions, be constantly encouraged + remind that I can "renew online!" only to find out halfway through the process that I can't.

Faster delivery of certificate.

It would be better to receive notifications of any problems w/app or renewals via e-mail not snail mail. We renewed online but received a letter w/issues 5 days later. I wish we rec. it via email so we could resolve it faster. Thank You.

I think Everything went well. I have been renewing online since we had a license. I have also did all of the continuing ed online. #3 no problems, #6 no calls

A few more years, and it won't matter to me.

Getting rid of lead Requirements. Will not renew Lead Base Paint Training. Wont work on pre 78 homes anymore

I would recommend being able to complete the forms online or at least have the PDF format as a writable

Just keep on sending reminder about class that are needed to take before lic come up for renewal.

You know it was great - but maybe a 30 & 15 day reminder to renew would be helpful

Everything was great

You are doing a great jobs

A phone call that I forgot to sign a form would have been great.

I have no ideas of better service on the CCB behalf. Everything went smooth with my renewal. I was pleased.

I had a wrong date in my reminders for renewal & so our license expired before I renewed. I would love a 2 week reminder!

It was a smooth process for me

Needs of class each renewal I? CCB classes then look for others are no easy no computer

Not possible The did an outstanding Job!!!

Is excellent, thank you

Taking the CE when you don't have easy access to the internet and you have to do this after hours.

Get rid of the stupid, expensive education requirements. I have been in business since 1996, why do I have to keep doing the same stupid stuff over and over

I don't think any changes are ness. The licensing section is pretty strait forward.

Give classes pertaining to our line of work. I took classes that I learned from buy not in our type of work.

The online was hard to follow if the CCB staff had not stayed on the phone to walk me through it I would not have unstood what to do on each step

Seems pretty good to me

Have a serchable forms section that is easy to find i.e copies of the required leins etc,

"Put this [illegible] on line so can fill out where done with online Renewal Need [illegible] choice re #3 #5 #6 had no problems or called".

"Our problem was with the Continuing Education classes We did not understand that we needed 8 hrs. The letter we received about the states 3 hrs did not say anything about the other 5 hrs. Also, the classes were a repeat of what we had already did. Did not pretain to our small company".

"Cost less".

"You folks do a great job for us dinosaurs with no computer".

Memorandum

From: Jim Denno, Administrator
Date: October 17, 2016
Subject: Rules to Implement Senate Bill 574 – Residential Restoration Contractors

SUMMARY

The 2015 legislature passed SB 574. SB 574 created a new license endorsement – residential restoration contractor. Beginning January 1, 2017, the Construction Contractors Board (CCB) is required to issue this license. By July 1, 2017, a business may not operate as a residential restoration contractor without being licensed.

The new law permits CCB to adopt rules in advance of the new license. CCB proposes a simple set of rules (similar to that used for home services contractors). New licensees will need to pay a $325 biennial fee, but will not be required to: (1) take the pre-licensure contractor training; (2) pass a test; or (3) complete continuing education.

RELEVANT STATUTES

SB 574 amends three statutes (ORS 701.005, 701.021 and 701.081) and adds a fourth (ORS 701.540).

The definition of a “contractor” is amended to include “a person that arranges for, undertakes, offers to undertake or submits a bid for the performance of restoration work as defined in ORS 701.540.” ORS 701.005(5)(h). Most of the new provisions are in ORS 701.540. That statute defines three new terms – “board-up services,” “man-made or natural disaster,” and “restoration work.” ORS 701.540(1). It also authorizes CCB to issue a license endorsed as a “residential restoration contractor,” without first requiring training or testing, or continuing education. ORS 701.540(2). A residential restoration contractor may perform restoration work on residential or small commercial structures. ORS 701.540(3). Finally, the board may adopt rules including, but not limited to “establishing minimum standards of practice and professional conduct” for restoration work. ORS 701.540(4).

A person who performs restoration work on a residential or small commercial structure must have an appropriate endorsement to do so. An acceptable endorsement is as a residential restoration contractor. ORS 701.021(2)(f); (3)(f). A residential restoration contractor is not authorized to perform work on a large commercial structure. See ORS 701.012(4).

A residential restoration contractor must maintain a surety bond of $10,000. ORS 701.081(9)(a). A residential restoration contractor must have general liability insurance in an amount of not less than $100,000. ORS 701.081(9)(b).

PROPOSED RULES

The proposed rules accomplish the following. The residential restoration contractor is included as one of the license endorsements. The amount of the bond and the insurance required for a residential restoration contractor, as established in the statute, are $10,000 and $100,000 respectively.

A license endorsement as a residential restoration contractor authorizes the licensee to perform restoration work, but does not authorize the performance of other contractor activities.

If approved by the board, the proposed rules will be noticed in the Oregon Bulletin published by the Secretary of State, there will be a public comment period, and the results of the public comment period will be brought back to the board. The board will have the opportunity to review the public comment record and adopt the rules, amending them if needed. The adopted rules will become effective on January 1, 2017.
