RULE SUMMARY

812-002-0120 is amended to clarify that "casual, minor or inconsequential" work does not include that which requires a structural permit; to change the word "value" to "aggregate contract price" to clarify that the exemption relates to only one structure or project; and to add language relating to work covered by lead-based paint requirements.

812-003-0120 is amended to exempt permanently attached or affixed signs at business locations that primarily and prominently display the contractor's name.

812-003-0142 is adopted to replace the previous rule (812-003-0140) that was mistakenly included in a repeal of rules in December 2013. This rule establishes the fees for CCB licensure. The current fees were adopted in January 26, 2010 and became effective 7/1/10 as authorized by the CCB Legislatively Approved Budget (LAB) (budget).

812-003-0260, 812-003-0340, 812-003-0350, 812-003-0360, 812-003-0370, and 812-003-0380 are amended to correct the cite references to the match the new license application fee rule (812-003-0142).

812-005-0800 is amended include reference to OAR 812-003-0280 (renewal or reissue of license), clarify when a contractor must notify CCB of its assumed business name, and to make the penalties match in sections (10) and (11).

812-006-0200 is amended to add a surety bond requirement to pre-licensure provider approvals.

812-006-0205 is adopted to create a surety bond (form) for pre-licensure provider approval.

812-009-0340 is amended to correct cite references and to add a reference to OAR 812-003-0260 that outlines information that an applicant must provide in order to obtain a license.

812-020-0050, 812-020-0055, 812-020-0060, 812-020-0062, 812-020-0065, 812-020-0070, 812-020-0072, 812-020-0080, 812-020-0085, 812-020-0087, and 812-020-0090 are amended to correct cite references (ORS 701.124 was renumbered to 701.086 in 2013).

812-020-0071 is amended to permit commercially endorsed contractors to "count" their RCE hours towards their commercial continuing education requirements. The rule refers to ORS 701.126, which was repealed in 2013. Subsection (1) of the rule allows commercial contractors to use "old" RCE until the end of 2014 (as is permitted for residential contractor renewals). Subsection (2) of the rule corresponds with the new RCE program.

812-022-0010 is amended to extend the period of time to December 31, 2015, during which a contractor may renew their CCB license based upon RCE earned before January 1, 2014; and to clarify that: 1) CCB-LRB substitutes for new CCB-LRB requirements (up to three hours); 2) BEST and Building Codes substitutes for new Series A course requirements (up to five hours); and 3) electives substitute for new Series B course requirements (up to eight hours).

812-022-0015 is amended to provide hours in excess of the three required CCB-LRB hours will be counted towards the 8 hour requirement of less experienced residential contractors. Effectively, they will substitute for "Series B" courses.

812-022-0021 is amended to remove references to course substitution and to add exemptions for contractors with a registered architect (owner or officer), and contractors with a licensed professional engineer (owner or officer).

812-022-0022 is adopted to permit a contractor to count any period during which it was licensed towards the six-year requirement to qualify for renewal by completing eight, rather than 16, hours of continuing education, permit contractors to use the experience of its RMI to qualify for renewal by completing eight, rather than 16 hours of continuing education, and clarifies that the licensing or experience does not need to be continuous.

NOTE: In order to save postage and printing costs in these difficult times, CCB is only providing a copy of the notice. ### Schedule of Penalties

The agency may assess penalties, not to exceed the amounts shown in the following guidelines:

(1) $600 for advertising or submitting a bid to do work as a contractor in violation of ORS 701.021 and OAR 812-003-0120, which may be reduced to $200 if the respondent becomes licensed or to $50 if the advertisement or bid is withdrawn immediately upon notification from the agency that a violation has occurred and no work was accepted as a result of the advertisement or bid; and

(2) $700 per offense without possibility of reduction for advertising or submitting a bid to do work as a contractor in violation of ORS 701.021 and OAR 812-003-0120, when one or more previous violations have occurred, or when an inactive, lapsed, invalid, or misleading license number has been used; and

(3) $1,000 per offense for performing work as a contractor in violation of ORS 701.021 when the Board has no evidence that the person has worked previously without having a license and no consumer has suffered damages from the work, which may be reduced to $700 if the respondent becomes licensed within a specified time; and

(4)(a) $5,000 per offense for performing work as a contractor in violation of ORS 701.021, when an owner has filed a complaint for damages caused by performance of that work, which may be reduced to $700 if the contractor becomes licensed within a specified time and settles or makes reasonable attempts to settle with the owner.

(b) A “complaint for damages” as used in section (4) of this rule includes, but is not limited to:

(A) A Construction Contractors Board Dispute Resolution Services (DRS) complaint; or

(B) A letter to Construction Contractors Board indicating that a citizen has been damaged by the contractor; and

(5) $5,000 per offense for performing work as a contractor in violation of ORS 701.021, when one or more violations have occurred, or when an inactive, lapsed, invalid, or misleading license number has been used; and

(6) $500 per offense for failure to respond to the agency’s request for the list of subcontractors required in ORS 701.345; and

(7) $1,000 per offense for hiring a unlicensed subcontractor; and

Pre-Licensure Training Provider Approval

(1) No pre-licensure training shall meet the requirements of ORS 701.122 unless it is offered by a pre-licensure training provider approved by the agency.

(2) To receive agency approval, individuals and organizations shall make application and sign an agreement with the agency prior to offering the pre-licensure training.

(3) The pre-licensure training provider application shall include, but will not be limited to, provisions for:

(a) Recording the name, address, contact information, and name of responsible administrator of the pre-licensure training provider.

(b) Submitting trainer resumes or work summaries that demonstrate that all its trainers have at least four years work experience or four years education, or any combination of both, in subject areas that they instruct as outlined in the Oregon Contractors Reference Manual.

(4) No pre-licensure training provider may offer or provide any pre-licensure training until there is a fully executed agreement between the pre-licensure training provider and the agency.

(5) No pre-licensure training provider may offer or provide any pre-licensure training if, at the time of offering or providing the pre-licensure training, the pre-licensure training provider is an RMI of a licensee.

(6) A pre-licensure training provider must comply at all times with the following requirements:

(a) The pre-licensure training provider will provide 16-hours of training under OAR 812-006-0150.

(b) The pre-licensure training provider will verify that each student taking the pre-licensure training has a current agency-approved manual.

(c) The pre-licensure training provider will use agency-approved curriculum and the agency-approved Oregon Contractors Reference Manual.

(d) The pre-licensure training provider will send electronic records of completion to the agency in a format approved by the agency and keep records of completion for a minimum of six years.

(e) The pre-licensure training provider will communicate law changes and program procedural changes received from the agency to the pre-licensure training provider's trainers and will implement these changes within 30 business days.

(f) The pre-licensure training provider will use only approved trainers who have at least four years work experience or four years education, or any combination of both, in the subject that they instruct as outlined in the Oregon Contractors Reference Manual. CCB will not approve as a trainer any individual who, at the time of offering or providing the pre-licensure training, is an RMI of a licensee.

(g) The pre-licensure training provider will request and receive, in writing, agency approval of all trainers at least 10 business days before trainers are scheduled to teach.

(h) The pre-licensure training provider will provide a mechanism for students to contact their trainer(s) outside of class for a minimum of one hour per week for 90 days from date of enrollment.

(i) The pre-licensure training provider will give all students information about how to contact trainers and hours of availability before the end of the pre-licensure training.

(j) The pre-licensure training provider will comply with all applicable federal and state laws.

(k) Except as provided in OAR 812-006-0205(2), the pre-licensure training provider will obtain and maintain a surety bond as described in OAR 812-006-0205 in the amount of $10,000 obligating the surety to pay the State of Oregon for the benefit of third-parties.

(7) The agency may publicize a pre-licensure training provider's test passage rate for its students.

(8) The agency may revoke a pre-licensure training provider's right to offer training and terminate the agreement of a pre-licensure training provider at any time the pre-licensure training provider fails to:

(a) Meet any requirement of the agreement; or

(b) Comply with these rules.

(9) The agency may revoke a pre-licensure training provider's right to offer pre-licensure training and terminate the agreement of a pre-licensure training provider:

(a) Whose students do not pass the agency test on their first attempt at least 70 percent of the time after the pre-licensure training provider has provided pre-licensure training for at least three months, or whose students fail to maintain the 70 percent first attempt test passing rate during the remaining period of the agreement; or

(b) Who acquires or attempts to acquire agency test questions by unauthorized means, including but not limited to, photographing, photocopying or videotaping any part of the agency's test or paying or offering incentives to individuals or business entities to write down, photograph or videotape any part of the agency's test.

Certification of Hours – Continuing Education for Commercial Contractors

(1) Upon renewal, a commercial contractor must certify that one or more key employees obtained the continuing education required by OAR 812-020-0050 to 812-020-0073.

(2) For a commercial general or specialty contractor – level 1 with five or more key employees, the commercial contractor must certify that one or more key employees completed at least 80 hours during the preceding license period.

(3) For a commercial general or specialty contractor – level 1 with four or fewer key employees, the commercial contractor must certify as follows:

(a) With four key employees, that one or more key employees completed at least 64 hours during the preceding license period.

(b) With three key employees, that one or more key employees completed at least 48 hours during the preceding license period.

(c) With two key employees, that one or more key employees completed at least 32 hours during the preceding license period.

(d) With one key employee, that the key employee completed at least 16 hours during the preceding license period.

(4) For a commercial general or specialty contractor – level 2, the commercial contractor must certify that one or more key employees completed at least 32 hours during the preceding license period.

(5) For purposes of this rule, the required amount of continuing education hours for the renewing contractor is determined based on the contractor's endorsement status as of the previous date of license issuance, reissuance or renewal. If the contractor was not endorsed as a commercial contractor on the previous date, continuing education does not apply.

(6) For purposes of this rule, if a contractor is subject to the continuing education requirement, the number of key employees is the number of such persons employed by the commercial contractor as of the previous date of license issuance, reissuance or renewal as a commercial contractor.

Effective Date – Continuing Education for Residential Contractors (SB 783)

(1) OAR 812-022-0000 to 812-022-0047 apply to residential contractors:

(a) That have active, non-lapsed licenses that expire on or after January 1, 2014.

(b) That renew lapsed licenses with expiration dates on or after January 1, 2014.

(c) That renew lapsed licenses with expiration dates before January 1, 2014, but that are renewed on or after January 1, 2014.

(2) Notwithstanding section (1), until December 31, [2014] 2015, a residential contractor may apply hours earned from attending the courses, completed during the licensing period immediately preceding January 1, 2014, towards the new residential continuing education requirements regardless of whether the courses would qualify under the new law. These courses may include[?] the following.

(a) Construction Contractor Board laws, regulations and business practices (up to three hours)[?];

Hours earned will be applied towards the three hours of Construction Contractor Board laws, regulations and business practices required for the new residential continuing education.

(b) Building codes courses approved by CCB before January 1, 2014, (up to two hours)[?]. Hours

earned will be applied towards the five hours of Series A courses required for the new residential continuing education.

(c) Building Exterior Shell Training (BEST) (up to three hours)[?and]. Hours earned will be applied towards the five hours of Series A courses required for the new residential continuing education.

(d) Elective courses. Hours earned will be applied towards the eight hours of Series B courses required for the new residential continuing education for contractors licensed less than six years.

(3) Notwithstanding section (1), a residential contractor renewing a license on or after January 1, 2014, that expired before October 1, 2013, must complete three hours of BEST and two hours of building code courses. The BEST and building code course hours will substitute for required Series A Course hours.

(4) Notwithstanding section (1), a residential contractor renewing a license on or after January 1, 2014, which expired between October 1, 2013, and December 31, 2013, must complete two hours of building code course. The hours will substitute for required Series A Course hours.

(5) Notwithstanding OAR 812-021-0028(7) and (8), providers approved pursuant to OAR 812-021-0025 or 812-022-0025 may continue to offer BEST or building codes courses previously approved by CCB under OAR 812-021-0028 without submitting additional application or fees for provider or course approval.

(6) Notwithstanding section (1), a contractor renewing its license between January 1, 2014, and March 31, 2014, may elect to renew the license pursuant to OAR 812-021-0015 rather than renewing its license pursuant to this rule. A contractor making this election will need to maintain record of the continuing education courses it completes to satisfy OAR 812-021-0015 for which the provider does not otherwise submit notification of completion of core hours.
