

News Release

May 25, 2016

Contact: Christine Stone, 503-602-8027; christine.l.stone@state.or.us

Department of Human Services Advocacy and Development Unit will meet Wednesday, June 1 in Salem

The Department of Human Services Advocacy and Development Unit will meet with American Sign Language interpreters on Wednesday June 1, 2016 from 10 a.m. to noon at the Employment Department Auditorium, 875 Union St NE, Salem. The meeting is open to the public.

The agenda includes an announcement of the Interpreter Services Request for Proposal that will contract with an agency to schedule and provide ASL interpreter services for state agencies. This will be followed by a question and answer session.

People can also call into the meeting: 1-888-808-6929; participant code: 4517555.

The meeting location is accessible to people with disabilities. For questions about accessibility or to request an accommodation, please contact Kelsey Gleeson at Kelsey.Gleeson@state.or.us. Requests should be made at least 48 hours before the event.

For questions about the meeting, please contact: Theresa Powell, policy analyst at Theresa.A.Powell@state.or.us.

###