

Do you have Medicare?

Do you need help with costs at the drugstore?
Is the $104.90 monthly Part B payment hard to afford?

If you have limited income and resources,
you may be able to get help.

What kind of help can I get?

Medicare Savings Programs pay the monthly bill for your Part B coverage, and may pay other costs, too.

Extra Help ("LIS") pays for some of your Part D drug coverage, and may help you pay less at the pharmacy.

Am I eligible?

These programs have different income guidelines. Please see the chart on the back for more information.

Where do I apply?

You might be able to get help with Medicare costs.

Or maybe you know a person with Medicare who could use some help paying for Part B (health insurance) and Part D (drug coverage).

If your monthly income and your resources (savings) match the guidelines, you may be eligible:

*There is NO Estate Recovery (claim against your estate) with these programs. Income does not include up to $2,000 per year received by an Alaska Native/American Indian that is derived from individual interests in trusts or restricted lands; or payments to members of specific Indian Tribes as provided by Federal legislation.

Guidelines:
Part B help	For a single person	For a couple
Income (BEFORE deductions)	$1324	$1792
Resources below (plus $1500 per person is allowed for burial)	$7280	$10,930
Part D help	For a single person	For a couple
Income (BEFORE deductions)	$1471	$1991
Resources below	$13,640	$27,250
