

County Disclosure Form

Confidentiality

This form is for employees of the office of the county assessor and home rule county taxation departments.

As a condition of your employment or performance of duties, please read this information. It is the county's responsibility to safeguard the confidentiality of taxpayer information and the taxpayer's right to privacy. County employees must understand the laws protecting confidentiality. It is important to understand what information is confidential and how to work with it.

You may not disclose confidential information. Confidential information in the assessor's office includes:

- All personal property returns.
- All real property returns.
- All industrial property returns filed under ORS 308.290.
- Department of Revenue Value Transmittal Sheets (VTS).
- Information furnished to DOR or the county under ORS 308.411.
- Other confidential information such as cost data, rental and expense data, etc.

Penalties for unauthorized disclosure.

Unauthorized disclosure of confidential tax information is a Class A misdemeanor. The prison term for a Class A misdemeanor is up to one year in the county jail; the fine is up to $6,250. An employee may also be liable for civil damages and dismissal from county or state service.

Read these laws.

Please read the following laws which explain the types of information that are confidential and the penalties for disclosure. These nondisclosure provisions must be strictly observed by all persons who have access to confidential information. If you have questions during your employment or performance of duties, ask your supervisor before giving information to anyone.

Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 308.290 (7)(a) All returns filed under the provisions of this section and ORS 308.525 and 308.810 are confidential records of the Department of Revenue or the county assessor's office in which the returns are filed or of the office to which the returns are forwarded under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(b) The assessor or the department may forward any return received in error to the department or the county official responsible for appraising the property described in the return.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, a return described in paragraph (a) of this subsection may be disclosed to:

(A) The Department of Revenue or its representative;

(B) The representatives of the Secretary of State or to an accountant engaged by a county under ORS 297.405 to 297.555 for the purpose of auditing the county's personal property tax assessment roll (including adjustments to returns made by the Department of Revenue);

(C) The county assessor, the county tax collector, the assessor's representative or the tax collector's representative for the purpose of:

(i) Collecting delinquent real or personal property taxes; or

(ii) Correctly reflecting on the tax roll information reported on returns filed by a business operating in more than one county or transferring property between counties in this state during the tax year;

(D) Any reviewing authority to the extent the return being disclosed relates to an appeal brought by a taxpayer;

(E) The Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice or a district attorney to the extent the return being disclosed relates to a case for which the Division of Child Support or the district attorney is providing support enforcement services under ORS 25.080; or

(F) The Legislative Revenue Officer for the purpose of preparation of reports, estimates and analyses required by ORS 173.800 to 173.850.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection:

(A) The Department of Revenue may exchange property tax information with the authorized agents of the federal government and the several states on a reciprocal basis, or with county assessors, county tax collectors or authorized representatives of assessors or tax collectors.

(B) Information regarding the valuation of leased property reported on a property return filed by a lessor under this section may be disclosed to the lessee or other person in possession of the property. Information regarding the valuation of leased property reported on a property return filed by a lessee under this section may be disclosed to the lessor of the property.
