What is the Clatsop County Employer Council?

Clatsop County Employer Council (CCEC) is a partnership between Clatsop County area employers and WorkSource NW Oregon Employment Department. CCEC is one of over 20 councils that are part of the Oregon Employer Council (OEC). Each local council has members who are employer volunteers from a wide range of business sizes and industries. These partnerships result in better services for Oregonians and allows employers direct input into the services funded by employer taxes. CCEC and OEC are recognized as leaders in creating opportunities and providing a voice for business.

WHAT DOES CCEC DO?

Clatsop County Employer Council help employers become better businesses through -

Opportunity: Make a difference because you have influence on government issues that affect business

Education: Connecting employers to resources and educational opportunities

Community: Partnerships and networking with local business and the community

Our Goals are to:

- Increase Employment Department awareness of employer needs
- Provide affordable education and training opportunities
- Address employers needs and concerns in today's economy
- Strive to increase adaptability and embrace change in the workplace

CHOOSE YOUR LEVEL OF INVOLVEMENT!

- ✓ Participate in business training meetings and seminars
- ✓ Serve as an advisor on a local or state OEC Board
- ✓ Serve as an officer on the OEC Board of Directors
- ✓ Connect to the statewide Oregon Employer Council and National Coalitions

CCEC and OEC provide information regarding local and state labor markets, employment and wage forecasts, legislative updates and dependent / child care for working families.

Employer input does has influence!
