RULE SUMMARY

Chapter 716, Oregon Laws 2015 (HB 2465) amends ORS 807.066 so that a parent or legal guardian of an applicant under 18 years of age can certify that the applicant attends school, rather than the applicant needing to provide a form that must be completed by a representative at the school. Many teens apply for driving privileges during the summer months and often are unable to complete the process as there is no one at the school available to provide the necessary proof of school attendance. Allowing a parent or legal guardian to certify that the applicant is attending school is much more efficient for both DMV and the applicant. However, if DMV suspends the driving privileges of a person under 18 years of age based on notice from a school that a student has withdrawn from school, DMV will not accept a certification from a parent or legal guardian to reinstate driving privileges. Because of the change in ORS 807.066 DMV has amended OAR 735-062-0035 to align with statute.
