- Serve the suspension until the requirement for the ignition interlock ends.
- Pay $75 Reinstatement Fee.

The length of your requirement for an ignition interlock device is based on the number of DUII convictions and the type of suspension or revocation you are reinstating.

You must install an ignition interlock device for:

- One Year from the ending date of a (one year) suspension for a first DUII conviction.
- Two Years from the ending date of a (three year) suspension for a second or subsequent DUII conviction.
- Five Years from the ending date of a (10 year minimum) revocation resulting from a felony DUII conviction or three or more DUII convictions.
- Five Years from the ending date of a (10 year minimum) revocation resulting from a conviction for aggravated vehicular homicide.
- Five Years from the ending date of a (10 year minimum) revocation resulting from a conviction for: murder; manslaughter in the first or second degree; criminally negligent homicide; or assault in the first degree and you were also convicted of DUII as part of the same criminal episode.
