

Community Advisory Committee Application

Deadline: July 15, 2015

The Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT) is committed to planning with and for the communities in which state-owned roadways are located. A Community Advisory Committee (CAC) is one of many mechanisms for effective public involvement that brings together a variety of diverse stakeholders in direct and regular contact with planners and decision-makers. This CAC will strive to include members who represent a diverse group of interests.

There is no technical background or experience required to be a CAC member, though a commitment to participate in earnest is expected. If you are interested in applying to be considered as a CAC member, please submit the application for membership by July 15, 2015 by 5:00 p.m.:

Online application form: www.oregon.gov/ODOT/HWY/REGION1/pages/82ndAve.aspx
