The American Council of Engineering Companies of Oregon (ACEC) and the Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT) cordially invite you to attend their partnering conference. The conference is designed especially for consultant and ODOT staff involved in transportation project delivery.

This year's conference features information on how consultants and ODOT work together, specifically looking at integration of multi modal/intermodal aspects of transportation project development.

ABOUT THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Nancy Sathre-Vogel is internationally known as Mom to Family on Bikes, a family of four who rode their bicycles from Alaska to Argentina. Nancy, her husband and two sons spent nearly three years together pedaling 17,300 miles through fifteen countries. She will be speaking about her family's experiences and share lessons they learned on the road. Nancy and her family have been featured on Good Morning America, CNN and more. She is the author of four books. If you would like to know more about Nancy, visit www.familyonbikes.org
