Surplus Personal Property Nonprofit Educational Activity

Nonprofit Educational Activities are programs to develop and promote the training, general knowledge, or academic, technical, and vocational skills and cultural attainments of individuals in a community or given political area. Public educational programs may include public school systems and supporting facilities such as centralized administrative or service facilities.

Approved means recognition and approval by the State department of education, or other appropriate authority where no recognized accrediting board, association, or other authority exists for the purpose of making an accreditation. For an educational institution or an educational program, approval must relate to academic or instructional standards established by the appropriate authority. An educational institution or program may be considered approved if its instructions and credits are accepted by three accredited or State-approved institutions; or if it meets the academic or instructional standards prescribed for public schools in the State; i.e. the organizational entity or program is devoted primarily to approved academic, vocational (including technical or occupational), or professional study and instructions, which operates primarily for educational purposes on a full-time basis for a minimum school year as prescribed by the State and employs a full-time staff of qualified instructors.

In the absence of an official State approving authority for educational institution or program, the awarding of research grants to the institution or organization by a recognized authority such as the National Institute of Education, or by similar national advisor council or organization may constitute approval of the institution or program provided all other criteria are met.

Accredited means approval by a recognized accrediting board or association on a regional, State, or national level, such as a State board of education; a regional or national accrediting association for universities, colleges, or secondary schools; or another recognized accrediting association.

Child care center means a public or nonprofit facility where educational, social, health, and nutritional services are provided to children through age 14 (or as prescribed by State law) and that is approved or licensed by the State or other appropriate authority as a child day care center or child care center.

College means an approved or accredited public or nonprofit institution of higher learning offering organized study courses and credits leading to a baccalaureate or higher degree.

Educational institution means an approved, accredited, or licensed public or nonprofit institution, facility, entity, or organization conducting educational programs or research for educational purposes, such as a child care center, school, college, university, school for the mentally or physically disabled, or an educational radio or television station.

Educational radio or television station means a public or nonprofit radio or television station licensed by the Federal Communications Commission and operated exclusively for noncommercial educational purposes.

Library means a public or nonprofit facility providing library services free to all residents of a community, district, State, or region.

Nonprofit tax-exempt Nonprofit tax-exempt activity means an institution or organization, which has been held to be tax-exempt under the provisions of Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

School (except schools for the mentally or physically disabled) means a public or nonprofit approved or accredited organizational entity devoted primarily to approved academic, vocational, or professional study and instruction, that operates primarily for educational purposes on a full-time basis for a minimum school year and employs a full-time staff of qualified instructors.

School for the mentally or physically disabled means a facility or institution operated primarily to provide specialized instruction to students of limited mental or physical capacity. It must be public or nonprofit and must operate on a full-time basis for the equivalent of a minimum school year prescribed for public school instruction for the mentally or physically disabled, have a staff of qualified instructors, and demonstrate that the facility meets the health and safety standards of the State or local government.

University means a public or nonprofit approved or accredited institution for instruction and study in the higher branches of learning and empowered to confer degrees in special departments or colleges.
