COFFEE CREEK CORRECTIONAL FACILITY STAFF PREVENT INMATE ESCAPE

An Oregon Department of Corrections (DOC) inmate attempted to escape Thursday night from the minimum facility at Coffee Creek Correctional Facility (CCCF) in Wilsonville. Correctional staff were able to prevent the inmate from escaping. The Oregon State Police is investigating. No other details are available at this time.

CCCF is a multi-custody facility in Wilsonville that houses more than 1,200 women. It provides intake and evaluation of all female and male inmates committed to state custody. CCCF delivers a range of correctional services and programs including alcohol and drug treatment, education, work opportunities, cognitive programming, and pre-release services. The minimum facility opened in 2001 and the medium facility opened in 2002. CCCF is Oregon's only women's prison.
