Inmate walks away from Deer Ridge Correctional Institution work crew

Today at approximately 2:00 p.m., inmate Jason Michael Donaldson walked away from an Oregon Department of Corrections work crew at Shevlin Park west of Bend. Oregon State Police and the Deschutes County Sheriff's Office are responding.

Donaldson is an inmate at Deer Ridge Correctional Institution (DRCI) in Madras. He was working on a ten-man crew clearing debris from the Phil's Trailhead when staff discovered he was missing.

Donaldson is a 36-year-old Caucasian male, 175 pounds, with short brown hair and brown eyes. He was last seen wearing blue jeans with the word "inmate" and the DOC logo stenciled on the knee in orange; a long-sleeved orange t-shirt with the word "inmate" and the DOC logo stenciled in blue on the front and back; and a blue t-shirt similarly stenciled in orange underneath. He may be wearing a blue bandana.

Donaldson entered DOC custody on Dec. 4, 2012, on three counts of theft in the first degree, three counts of burglary in the second degree, and one count of criminal mischief in the first degree out of Lane County. His earliest release date is June 20, 2016.

Inmate Jason Michael Donaldson

Anyone with information regarding Donaldson's whereabouts is asked to call Oregon State Police at 1-800-452-7888.
