SERVICES AVAILABLE ACROSS OREGON

CHILD / ELDER ABUSE

- Adult Protective Services: 800-282-8096 (TTY)

People with developmental disabilities may need assistance when they have been abused or are at risk of abuse or neglect. Protective services are those steps taken to prevent abuse or neglect and to keep people safe. Adult protective services are provided for all adults with developmental disabilities who receive services in the community. Individuals who are able to make their own decisions may refuse to accept offered services. Adult protective services are defined as:

- Arranging for the immediate protection of the adult;
- Contacting the adult to assess his or her ability to protect his or her own interest and give informed consent;
- Determining the ability of the adult to understand the nature of the protective service and his or her willingness to accept services;
- Coordinating evaluations to determine or verify the adult's physical and mental status, if necessary;
- Assisting in or arranging appropriate services and alternative living arrangements;
- Assisting in or arranging the medical, legal or other necessary services to prevent further abuse; and
- Providing advocacy to assure the adult's rights and entitlements are protected.

FINANCIAL

- Crime Victims Compensation Program: 503-378-5348; 503-378-5938 (TDD):

If you are a victim of crime, you have legal rights guaranteed by both the Oregon Constitution and Oregon Revised Statutes. Your right to justice includes the right to:

- A meaningful role in the criminal or juvenile justice process
- Be treated with dignity and respect

- Fair and impartial treatment
- Reasonable protection from the offender

Crime Victims' Rights apply to both the adult criminal justice system and the juvenile justice system. Many of these rights are automatic but some have to be requested through your local district attorney's office or juvenile department. For information, visit their website at:
www.doj.state.or.us/victims/rights.shtml

- DHS Self-Sufficiency Programs: Program contact information varies by county:
 DHS serves thousands of Oregonians each year through assistance programs aimed at stabilizing and strengthening families, helping families and individuals become self-sufficient, reducing barriers to employment and improving the health and welfare of children. For contact information by county, visit the DHS website at:

LEGAL / COURTS

- Yamhill County Victim Assistance Programs: 503-434-7510, Ext. 4425
Each county has services available to assist victims of crime. The criminal justice system can be a very confusing and frustrating process for people who are not familiar with it. If you are a victim of crime, District Attorneys' Offices in every county have trained advocates that can help you navigate the criminal justice system, understand your rights, and refer you to resources in your community that can offer support. For additional information, please visit their website at: www.doj.state.or.us/victims/assistance.shtml
