Moral Fitness

Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS) and Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR) require all private investigator applicants uphold the core values established by the Board of Public Safety Standards and Training and be of good moral fitness as determined by a criminal background check, department investigation or other reliable sources. Lack of good moral fitness includes, but is not limited to, mandatory or discretionary disqualifying misconduct as described in OAR 259-061-0300(2).

ORS 703.425(3) requires all applicants must disclose any acts constituting grounds for denial of an investigator's license and must notify the department if the applicant is charged with a criminal offense. The department shall conduct a special review of any applicant making a disclosure.

If you answer yes to any of the below questions, attach an explanation and provide date, location, nature of offense and current status or resolution.

1. Since your last valid application, do you have a pending charge or conviction for a felony or misdemeanor?
YES NO

2. Since your last valid application, have you been charged with a felony or misdemeanor and agreed to a stipulation or settlement in lieu of conviction?
YES NO

3. Since your last valid application, have you been the subject of a complaint, lawsuit or arbitration regarding your investigative services?
YES NO

4. Since your last valid application, have conditions or restrictions been placed on your investigative license or registration held in this or another state or jurisdiction including local, state, federal or tribal?
YES NO

5. Since your last valid application, have any claims been filed against your surety bond, irrevocable letter of credit or errors and omissions insurance policy?
YES NO

6. Since your last valid application, has your investigative license or registration ever been revoked or suspended? Or have you ever been censured, reprimanded or put on a period of probation for any certification/license/company registration?
YES NO

CERTIFICATION: I hereby certify that all of the information given in this application and any support documentation submitted are true and correct. I understand that any falsification could result in denial of my renewal application, suspension and/or revocation of my license and subjects me to civil penalties.

Investigator Code of Ethics

As an Investigator, I swear or affirm that I will, at all times, demonstrate the core values that are integral to the field of private investigation as follows:

- Character. Good character includes being respectful and courteous, being faithful and diligent, using discretion, demonstrating compassion and exhibiting courage;
- Honesty. Honesty includes integrity, credibility, acting honorably, adhering to the facts and maintaining confidences;
- Striving for Justice. Striving for justice includes just treatment, the quality or characteristics of being just, fair and non-discriminatory;
- Public Trust. Public trust includes maintaining public confidences, being law-abiding and adhering to recognized industry standards; and
- Respect for the laws and constitutions of this state and nation

[OAR 259-061-0040]

I will:

- Obey all laws in the pursuit of an investigation;
- Abide by all provisions of ORS chapter 703 and OAR chapter 259, Division 061 as they relate to licensed investigators;
- Never permit personal feelings, prejudices, political beliefs, aspirations, animosities or friendships to influence my professional decisions;
- Never compromise and will relentlessly perform my duties in accordance with the law, courteously and appropriately, without fear or favor, malice or ill-will;
- Maintain each client's confidentiality within the limits of the law;
- Accept sole responsibility for my individual standard of professional performance and actions, taking every reasonable opportunity to enhance and improve my level of knowledge, competence, and professional integrity;
- Actively seek and report the truth in the performance of my professional duties;
- Be above reproach in the financial aspects of my relationships with clients;
- Abide by the terms of agreements made with my clients to the best of my ability;
- Recognize that the credential of a licensed investigator is a symbol of public trust, to be held only so long as I am true to the ethics of the investigative profession.

As an investigator I recognize that I am bound to this code of ethics and will constantly strive to maintain them, dedicating myself to my chosen profession.
