Other case meetings attorneys regularly attend:

We attend meetings at the DHS office to staff ongoing cases; historically, these meetings have been referred to as "Child Planning Conferences."

Q15: When attorneys do not attend hearings what are the primary barriers/obstacles to attendance?

There are no barriers/obstacles to attending hearings. In Clackamas County, District Attorneys do not attend any post-jurisdictional hearings, as attorneys from the Attorney General's Office handle these hearings. Accordingly, any hearing subsequent to a disposition is likely not attended by a DA (e.g.: Review hearing, Permanency hearing, TPR).

Q16: When attorneys do not attend case meetings what are the primary barriers/obstacles to attendance?

There are no barriers/obstacles to attending case meetings. In Clackamas County, by practice, DDAs do not attend the meetings coordinated/organized by DHS because they are not specific to the pending petition, but rather meetings where DHS is addressing internal/Agency specific protocols. These meetings include, Child Safety Meeting and Family Decision Meeting.

Q17: What additional work does your office do to support the efforts of DHS?

	Yes	No
