A Designated Collaborating Organization (DCO) is not a CCBHC Satellite.
CCBHC Preliminary Survey	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The preliminary survey is scheduled to launch today or tomorrow. Depending on your listserv subscriptions, you may receive this survey more than one time. Please only respond once. We are asking for one submission per organization. The email announcement will link you to a Survey Monkey survey. An announcement will also be available online.
Communications from SAMHSA	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• SAMHSA is not permitted to post slide decks or FAQs to their website. However, CCBHC project directors and coordinators from SAMHSA are will to share questions submitted from different planning grant states, along with responses. OHA will format the responses (some are not applicable to Oregon, example: those pertaining to PPS2), and post to the CCBHC website.• OHA continues to encourage stakeholders to email questions to ccbhc.grant@state.or.us
Update on Technical Assistance	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• OHA is working on developing a formal relationship with Dale Jarvis and the consulting group Westat. The consultants will provide technical assistance to the state through smaller design model planning, as well as through a learning collaborative (TBA), and ongoing regional technical assistance to CCBHC applicants.• Responses to question of “what would you like to see for future call topics or technical assistance?”<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Exploring how CCO relationship is different from normal contracting○ Technical assistance on cost reports sooner rather than later○ Clarification on DCO relationships○ PPS/Cost report focused call

Q&A	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Question: Are CCBHC applicants required to submit a preliminary cost report with our application?<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Answer: No. Some planning grant states have are asking CCBHC applicants to submit cost reports with their applications. Oregon is not one of these states. We anticipate we will begin working on the cost reports in late summer 2016. More information will be coming reading the cost reports and technical assistance around cost reports. In the meantime, OHA encourages you to look over the cost report documents posted on the CCBHC website.• Question: What is the difference between CCBHC outreach and a satellite activity?<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Answer: An outreach activity may be something that takes outside the four walls. For example, an outreach activity to a school or hospital. A satellite activity is a service tied to the CCBHC
