Subject: Clarification about fee-for-service rate increase for procedure code T1015

Earlier this week, we let you know that the Division of Medical Assistance Programs (DMAP) will increase the fee-for-service rate for procedure code T1015 (All-Inclusive Clinic Visit) from $78 to $135, effective June 1, 2014.

We are writing this letter to make sure you know the following:

- This rate increase will be retroactively effective back to April 1, 2014; and
- This change only applies to claims billed directly to DMAP.

What should you do?

To receive the increased rate for services dated on or after April 1, 2014, for claims you bill to DMAP:

- Wait to bill these claims until June 1; or,
- Resubmit these claims on or after June 1.

For more information about how to bill DMAP using code T1015, please refer to our earlier letter about the rate increase and Oregon Administrative Rule (OAR) 410-130-0587 - Family Planning Clinics.
