TOPIC	DISCUSSION	ACTION ITEMS
1. Welcome and Introductions	Introductions were made in the room and on the phone.
— Agenda Review. Call for additional agenda items.	Agenda was reviewed with no additional agenda items.
— Review of May meeting notes	Notes from May meeting were reviewed and approved.
2. CCO Duals Roundtable	There was discussion around closure letters which were

	sent to members who were in appropriately categorized as MAGI when they had become Medicare eligible, plans reported that these letters caused a lot of confusion for their members. The letters also caused confusion with the community assisters and SHIBA also receive a lot of calls. — OHA will have an internal discussion on how these letters can be revised to make them more clear and easier for the member to understand. — Plans would like to have notification ahead of letters going out.
3. Duals Fact Sheet	The Office of Health Analytics has created fact sheets on pertaining to Individuals with Dual Eligibility. The charts and graphs were reviewed and discussed by the group.	Action Item (Jennifer): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Check on the status of PowerPivot ▪ Ask whether CCO B information should be included in the data ▪ Ask if the data can be broken down by age
4. Duals Technical Assistance Tool	Jennifer presented a PowerPoint on the Dual Eligible Technical Assistance tool. The technical assistance tool is flexible and adaptable to each CCO's specific needs — Can be aligned with existing work & meetings — Parts may fit for focus by specific teams, CAC,

	Communications, etc. — Can be reviewed over time, in sections, or through structured planning groups Technical Assistance available to you at request from June 2015 – August 2016 through SIM funding Use of the technical assistance tool is not required, but meant to assist in meeting goals for the Triple Aim specifically around dual eligibles.
5. LTSS & CCO Collaborations: What’s Happening in Health Promotion	Naomi Sacks (APD); Kris Boler (APD District 9 & 15) and Lavinia Goto (Northwest Senior & Disability Services) attended to complete their presentation on Transformation in Action CCOs & APD/AAA: Partnerships Across the State.
6. Updates on Draft Oregon Integrated Denial Notice	Work on the Integrated Denial Notice has been placed on hold, as changes in the draft Managed Care rules may result in changes to requirements.
