

Section 8 Housing & Other Low-Income Contacts and Listings

Project Based Section 8 Housing Locator	Section 8 Apartment Locator: This search gives a list of apartment buildings that have Section 8 units. This Section 8 is not portable – it stays with the apartment. You would receive Section 8 assistance when you move in and leave it there when you move out. You can narrow your search to the area in which you wish to live, the size unit you will need, and if you need an accessible unit. You will need to contact each apartment property to find out about their qualifications, waiting list, and application process.
Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher	Housing Authorities for the Tenant Voucher program: This is a list of the Housing Authorities in Oregon that may offer Housing Choice Vouchers, which is the portability program. This voucher can be used to rent a house, duplex, or apartment that does not have Section 8 attached to the unit. You will need to contact the Housing Authority for your county to find out about the program.
HUD Resource Locator	HUD Resource Locator: An innovative mobile app and website to further expand and enhance HUD customer service. It offers real-time HUD housing information, so you can quickly connect with building managers, public housing authority representatives, and property management companies to get answers to your inquiries about housing availability and other housing-related questions. The HUD Resource Locator mobile app is available via Apple iTunes, Google Play Marketplace and also on your browser at resources.hud.gov.
