OLCC Town Hall Meetings for Portland Metro Retail Liquor Locations

Portland, Oregon – The Commissioners of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission announced last month that the agency would embark on a process that could result in an additional 17 retail liquor locations in the Portland metro area. The open recruitment process is an effort to improve customer convenience by expanding liquor sales in underserved areas with a measured, but consistent amount of growth.

The informational meetings will be held at the OLCC's Milwaukie Headquarters office at 9079 SE McLoughlin Blvd.

- Thursday, Oct. 1st at 6:30 p.m.
- Friday, Oct. 2nd at 10:00 a.m.

At the meeting, OLCC staff will review the application packet, selection criteria, compensation, and open recruitment timeline. OLCC Commissioners are looking for creative, innovative proposals that could include a variety of different models such adding a spirits section to an existing retail store, a traditional standalone liquor store, or a boutique store.

More information on open recruitment is available on OLCC's liquor stores web page.
