AGENCY REPORTS

There will be time for agency report-outs but if there are lengthy ones, please send in advance so they can be distributed at the meeting (diane@dillardpr.com and ddillard@cepalepc.com) two days prior to the meeting.

Our next meeting is slated for Tuesday, April 3, 2012 at the 9-1-1 Center. Our guest speaker will be Denise Barrett from the Regional Disaster Preparedness Organization. Sacajawea Health Center and the American Red Cross will be providing treats and door prizes.

Mark Wallace became the State Fire Marshal on July 1, 2011.

He is a 42 year veteran and has worked in every functional position of the fire service. He spent his first 32 years service in Colorado and the last 10 years in McKinney, Texas. He has been a Fire Chief since 1987 leading four fire departments prior to being selected as the Oregon State Fire Marshal.

Chief Wallace holds an Associated Degree in Fire Science Technology, a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration and a Masters Degree in Public Administration. He is a graduate of the National Fire Academy's Executive Fire Officer Program and has been designated as a chief Fire Officer by the Commission on Public Safety Excellence. He was selected as a member of the Institution o Fire Engineers, an international association of fire service professionals. He is also a Certified Emergency Manager by the International Association of Emergency Managers.

Chief Wallace is the author of a book tiled "Fire Department Strategic Planning: Creating Future Excellence" and a member of the Editorial Advisory Board of Fire Chief Magazine. He is also a FEMA certified instructor of the Incident Command System and a former Lead Adjunct Instructor at the National Fire Academy, teaching Fire and Arson Investigation Courses in both the resident and field programs.
