

Hot Spots from the State Fire Marshal June 2012

Fireworks toolkit available

The OSFM's Keep it Legal, Keep it Safe fireworks toolkit is available free to all Oregon fire departments and districts, as well as any public safety or law enforcement agency. The toolkit contains education and enforcement resources including: printable citation forms, fireworks statutes and rules, inspection guidelines for retail sales outlets, educational flyers, a pocket guide to fireworks enforcement, and tips on identifying legal and illegal fireworks. You can access the toolkit on the OSFM website. For more information, contact Nicole Lewis at 503-934-8285 or nicole.lewis@state.or.us.

2012 Mobilization Plan and Task Force/Strike Team Guidebook

- The 2012 Mobilization Plan is now available on the OSFM website. The 2012 plan reflects updates as proposed by the Mobilization Plan Committee to State Fire Marshal Mark Wallace. For questions, contact Mariana Ruiz-Temple at 503-934-8238 or mariana.ruiz-temple@state.or.us.
- The 2012 Task Force/Strike Team Leader Guidebook has been finalized and is now available on the OSFM website.

OSFM Annual Report

The OSFM 2011 Annual Report is now available on the OSFM website. The report is a review of OSFM's major activities and accomplishments in prevention, preparedness, and response during the year. Notable emergency responses are also highlighted, along with general information on fire statistics in Oregon. A supplement to the report will soon be released containing more statistics and information on fires and hazardous materials incidents in Oregon.