The Board is implementing a temporary fee reduction for pharmacist licensure fees as allowed by ORS 291.055(3(a)) - ORS 291.055(3(1Bb)) due to an unexpected surplus in revenue. The license fee will be reduced from $200 to $120. This temporary rule will remain in effect until permanent rules are adopted or until this temporary rule expires on September 28, 2013; whichever is first to occur. As required by ORS 291.055(3)(a)(B), fees will not be increased to more than the prior level. This will be determined when the budget surplus is calculated to be at or less than 4% of the Board's gross operating budget.

Need for the Temporary Rule(s):

The Board is implementing a temporary fee reduction for pharmacist licensure fees as allowed by ORS 291.055(3(a)) - ORS 291.055(3(1Bb)) due to an unexpected surplus in revenue. The license fee will be reduced from $200 to $120. Documents Relied Upon, and where they are available:

None.

Justification of Temporary Rule(s):

Without this temporary rule, new pharmacists and pharmacists completing the 2013 annual license renewal between April 5, 2013 and June 30, 2013 will be required to pay $200.00 for their annual renewal fee and this will increase the Board's surplus further and is unnecessary for the Board's operational needs.
