RULE SUMMARY

These rules provide the authority and process for the Board to conduct fingerprint-based nationwide criminal background checks, through the Oregon State Police and FBI, on employees, potential employees and applicants for volunteer positions with the Board. This includes a process for final determination of fitness and an appeals procedure. The rules in Division 010 replace temporary rules adopted in January 2011. The amendment to 855-019-0120 provides a one-year waiting period for applicants for licensure as a pharmacist who have failed the MPJE or NAPLEX three times.

Copies of the full text of these rules can be obtained from the Board's web site, www.pharmacy.state.or.us, or by calling the Board office (971) 673-0001.
