RULE SUMMARY

Changes to OAR 855-080-0100 through 855-080-0103 are required to accommodate revisions that were made to the Veterinary Medical Examining Board's rules relating to the registration of Certified Euthanasia Technicians that expire on October 31, 2011. Without this temporary rule, new Animal Euthanasia Drug Outlet registrations cannot be issued and existing registered Animal Euthanasia Drug Outlets will not be able to renew an Animal Euthanasia Drug Outlet Registration with the Oregon Board of Pharmacy which expires December 31, 2011. The Board eliminates the requirement for Certified Euthanasia Technicians and establishes new training requirements for those who possess/administer sodium pentobarbital for euthanizing injured, sick, homeless or unwanted domestic pets and other animals. These rules also incorporate a 2011 legislatively approved fee increase which was adopted by Temporary Rule in June and effective July 1, 2011.

Need for the Temporary Rule(s):

Changes to OAR 855-080-0100 through 855-080-0103 are required to accommodate revisions that were made to the Veterinary Medical Examining Board's rules relating to the registration of Certified Euthanasia Technicians that expire on October 31, 2011. Without this temporary rule, new Animal Euthanasia drug outlets can not be registered and existing registered Animal Euthanasia drug outlets will not be able to renew an Animal Euthanasia Drug Outlet Registration with the Oregon Board of Pharmacy which expires December 31, 2011. The Board eliminates the requirement for Certified Euthanasia Technicians and establishes new training requirements for those who possess/administer sodium pentobarbital for euthanizing injured, sick, homeless or unwanted domestic pets and other animals. These rules also incorporate a 2011 legislatively approved fee increase which was adopted by Temporary Rule in June and effective July 1, 2011.

Documents Relied Upon, and where they are available: OAR 875-020 was repealed.

Justification of Temporary Rule(s):

The Board finds that pursuing permanent rulemaking procedures will delay the implementation of these rules and impact the licensing of animal euthanasia drug outlets registered with the Board. Without this temporary rule, new Animal Euthanasia Drug Outlet Registrations cannot be issued and registered Animal Euthanasia Drug Outlets whose license renewal cycle begins in November will not be able to renew with the Oregon Board of Pharmacy.
